(v13-15)

1 There was a rich man who had a manager,
and charges were brought to him
that this man was wasting his possessions.

2 And he called him and said to him,
'What is this that I hear about you?
Turn in the account of your management,
for you can no longer be manager.'

Luke 16:1-8 (ESV) (p.1/5)

3 And the manager said to himself,
‘What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me?’

I am not strong enough to dig,
and I am ashamed to beg.

Luke 16:1-8 (ESV) (p.2/5)

4 I have decided what to do,
so that when I am removed from management,
people may receive me into their houses.'

5 So, summoning his master's debtors
one by one, he said to the first,
'How much do you owe my master?'

Luke 16:1-8 (ESV) (p.3/5)

6 He said, ‘A hundred measures of oil.’

He said to him, ‘Take your bill,
and sit down quickly and write fifty.’

7 Then he said to another,
‘And how much do you owe?’

He said, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’
He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’

Luke 16:1-8 (ESV) (p.4/5)

The master commended
the dishonest manager
for his shrewdness.

For the sons of this world are more shrewd
in dealing with their own generation
than the sons of light.

Luke 16:8 (ESV)

Hear what the unrighteous judge says.

7 And will not God give justice to his elect,
who cry to him day and night?

A close-up photograph of a glass bottle filled with golden-yellow olive oil. In the foreground, several green and brown olives are scattered on a dark surface. The lighting is warm, highlighting the texture of the olives and the clarity of the oil.

‘How much do you owe my master?’

6 He said, ‘A hundred measures of oil.’

He said to him, ‘Take your bill,
and sit down quickly and write fifty.’

Luke 16:5-6 (ESV)

A photograph of a grand, ornate building, likely a train station or a large hall, featuring a prominent glass roof supported by a steel framework and two tall, decorative towers. The sky above is filled with warm, orange and yellow hues of a sunset. The building's facade is made of light-colored stone and features intricate architectural details.

I have decided what to do,
so that when I am removed from management,
people may receive me into their houses.'

A dark, atmospheric photograph of a city street at night. The scene is filled with the warm glow of streetlights and the headlights of cars. In the background, several tall buildings stand, their windows reflecting the light. A large digital billboard on the left side of the street displays an advertisement for "TORONTO DOMINION BANK".

The master commended
the dishonest manager
for his shrewdness.

For the sons of this world are more shrewd

Making Friends Using Wealth

1. Make Peace with God
2. Support the Saints in Their Need
3. Show Mercy to Business Partners

10 One who is faithful in a very little
is also faithful in much,

and one who is dishonest in a very little
is also dishonest in much.

Luke 16:10-12 (ESV) (p.1/2)

11 If then you have not been faithful
in the unrighteous wealth,
who will entrust to you the true riches?

12 And if you have not been faithful
in that which is another's,
who will give you that which is your own?

Luke 16:10-12 (ESV) (p.2/2)

Micheile Henderson

Therefore I tell you,
do not be anxious about your life,
what you will eat or what you will drink,
nor about your body, what you will put on.

Is not life more than food,
and the body more than clothing?

Whatever you do, work heartily,
as for the Lord and not for men,

24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive
the inheritance as your reward.

You are serving the Lord Christ.

No servant can serve two masters,

for either he will hate the one
and love the other,

or he will be devoted to the one
and despise the other.

You cannot serve God and money.

And he said to them,
“You are those who justify yourselves
before men, but God knows your hearts.

For what is exalted among men
is an abomination in the sight of God.
